What The Earth Produces.

What The Earth Produces.

The earth has nourished us through unknown ages of human existence. Is it not true that the earth supplies us with everything that we really require for existence? Have you ever thought that it is probable that the earth supplies us with the means to keep our bodily vigor, our health, if we only knew it? The animals know by instinct what is good for them and will search until they find in some plant what they need for correcting indigestion or constipation, etc. Is it, therefore, not possible that there are roots and herbs supplied by nature which will cure the diseases that afflict human kind? That is why Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has such faith in his "Medical Discovery." Years ago, when he was in general and active practice, he found that a combination of certain herbs and roots made into an alterative extract, without the use of alcohol, would always put the stomach into a healthy condition, nourish the tissues, feed the blood and nerves and put healthy tone into the whole system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery restores the lost flesh by curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of lood from which flesh and strength are made.

Royalty, Hsq., Justice of the Peace, Lexing-Ky, for 19 years, writes: "I am satisfied y be softering from stomach and liver able which as a rule are the result of bowel isculties. My experience with the above-ned medicine was most satisfactory. It soon I my system well regulated and toned up, I have felt in splendid health and spirits

Minister Removed. Rev. Wilmer Evans Coffman, pastor of the Dorranceton Methodist Episcopal Church, at Wilkesbarre, Pa., whose paper before the Methodist preachers three weeks ago opposing church sup-pers, etc., caused a sensation, and who carried his convictions into his own pulpit, has been superseded because of his views. When he took charge of the church recently he announced that he did not believe in church money-making schemes, and that the church's business was to save men from sin and to inform their minds, but not to them dinners of ice-cream at entertainments, and not to get up concerts. Dorranceton Church was completed last winter at a cost of $13,000. A debt of $6,000 rests upon the property, of which $4,000 has been subscribed by individuals $4,000 has been subscribed by individuals and $2,000 by church societies, Sunday school classes and the choir. The organizations have been raising their money, in part, by the methods which the pastor denounced. Six of the 23 official members petitioned Presiding Fide Mundals. tioned Presiding Elder Murdock to remove the pastor, on the ground that his forceful opposition to these schemes was perilous to the financial interests of the church. On Saturday night, however, board meeting, asking for the retention of the pastor. After weighing the arguof the pastor. After weighing the arguments of both sides, Elder Murdock announced that Rev. Stephen Jay was appointed pastor of the Dorrance Church.

Rev. Coffman said: "I am disappointed, but not surprised, at the action taken. I have no hard feelings in the matter, but will continue to help the church. I insist that it is wrong for the religious organization to compete with Mysterious Death.

Herman F. Bothmer, a butcher, wenty-seven years old, was killed yesterday morning in the dining-room of his home, 227 north Washington street, Baltimore, by one of his long, sharp butcher knives piercing his left lung and heart. Mysterious circumstances surround the tragedy. His wife, Lillie Bothmer, an attractive young woman, who was the only eyewitness of her husband's death, claims that he fell upon the knife, but the case which the woman is concealing. They have, therefore, held her for the result of the coroner's Ind.

Mrs. Bothmer told the police that her husband was out all Saturday night, and that when he returned home yesterday morning she saw that he had been drinkmorning. She said he quarreled with her ing. She said he quarreled with her about his breakfast, which she was preadout his breakfast, which she was prea paring. She raised a window and asked a saloonkeeper if her husband had been in his saloon all night. Her husband, she said, then came toward her. The knife was lying on the buffet with the blade protruding.
